Dedication

Mr. Andrick has been a very unusual teacher for us. In the first place, he has made all of his classes interesting for us, even though all he does is lecture. Perhaps American History is so inherently interesting that there is no possible way that he could explain it to us in a dull way. But we doubt it. A more probable explanation would be that the way Mr. Andrick sees things just makes those things more interesting to see. And now we find that all the time that we were enjoying his classes, we were really learning all about U.S. History. But, he's also been a very unusual teacher in a different sense of teaching, aside from classroom work. Mr. Andrick has been a friend to us. If you wanted to understand a classroom topic more thoroughly, or even just talk about nothing, just to have a friendly conversation was enjoyable. He would talk to you about anything that would interest him, and that certainly doesn't leave out much. He's certainly kept the interest of his students for the years we've been here, and we thank you for that, Mr. Andrick.

It will be nice to be a Freshman once again. Life's beautiful when you're a freshman, because you actually believe all your bull*. "Follow your dreams, because they sure as hell aren't going to follow you." * Of course, sophomorehood is a bummer, for when your bull* starts to go sour you become disillusioned. But still "life goes on, bra." * —the Beatles "I-I-I'm a tough ole Bugger." * —Clayton Andrick When you've achieved Juniorhood you're ready to begin making new-and-improved bull*. Then you're a Senior. "Thank you, Uni, It's been alright." * —William Shakesphere . . . and you're ready to start all over again.

"Sooner or later you will find a way
To feel like sunshine even on a cloudy day
To feel like morning in the dead of night
Sooner or later it's gonna be alright.
Now don't be thinkin' your life's a mess
Rather start thinkin' in terms of happiness
It takes time sometimes to figure out
That there's nothin' to worry about
And that there's plenty to be thankful for
It takes time sometimes to know the score
And it's gonna happen, just decide where you're goin'
And start blazin your own trail again." —REO Speedwagon

"Here is the test of wisdom,
Wisdom is not finally tested in schools,
Wisdom cannot be pass'd from one having it to another not having it,
Wisdom is of the soul, is not susceptible of proof, is its own proof,

Is the certainty of the reality and immortality of things, and the excellence of things;
Something there is in the float of the sight of things that provokes it out of the soul." Walt Whitman

Faculty

Warren Royer was once again our principal, and he was once again a pretty nice guy.

Administration

Alan Purves was the Director of the Curriculum Lab.

George Herts was our very cool assistant principal.

June Mank, our diligent bookkeeper, took care of money problems.

Barb Seely our ever faithful receptionist.

Patricia Bandy was the Curriculum Lab. secretary.

Sue Winking moved from counseling secretary to staff secretary.

Secretaries

Janet Neathery was the Math Projects' secretary and could always be found next door.

Counselors

Judy Osgood was an all-around counselor for all-around counseling.

Pat Gatto was the director of counseling while teaching a course in career development.

Connie Evert was the financial aid counselor.

Karen Moon, counseling secretary answered any questions about grade averages.

Joan Van Nord, the librarian, would answer any questions you may have had and also sponsored the National Honor Society.

Librarians

Leslie Simms was the assistant librarian and once again gave out nasty overdue slips.

Lanie Pryor was the library clerk whose help was essential in the library.

Nancy Bailey taught English and Macbeth to all the juniors.

Mary Kurtz enlightened sophomores with King Arthur, in addition to sponsoring Gargoyle.

English

Adele Suslick taught seniors and helped them through debates.

Judith Perrin taught freshmen English and sponsored theatrics this year.

Charlene Tibbetts headed the English/Humanities dept. while teaching English to the subs.

Carol Bond once again headed the Foreign Lang. dept. and taught the French Language Intensive Program (FLIP).

Uni warms up for the big meet, conference, on the starting line, the road. Yukio's flat on his back saving energy!

The cheerleaders put on a pep rally for the Cross Country team the day of conference. This is only half the team!

At conference, Brian finished 2nd in a time of 16:10 for 3 miles.

Peter finished 2nd for us and 4th overall in 16:50.

John Pirkle provided SENIOR leadership and finished in 17:13.

The girls' team finished 4th of 8 at district with their top two finishers, Maggie Williams and Andrea Talley, traversing the 2.25 mile course in 14:46 and 14:48 respectively.

Girls' Basketball

Up! Up! And Away!

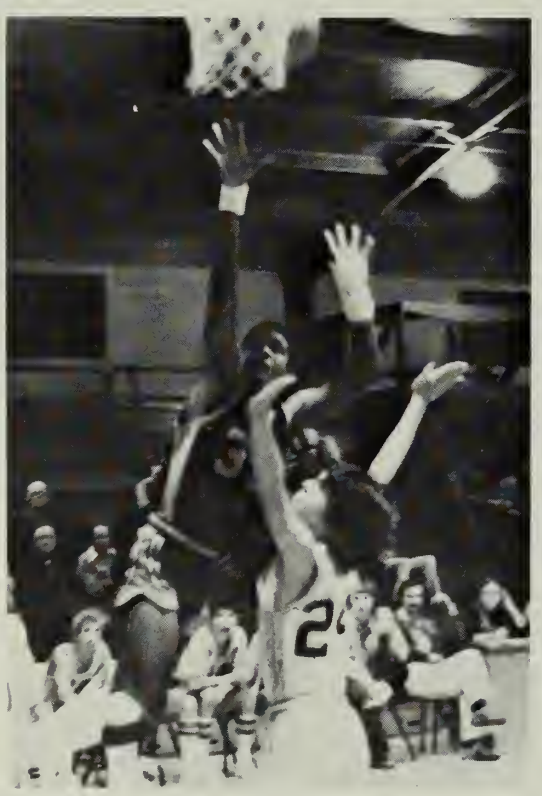
Look I can FLY!

Discussing strategy.

The girl's basketball team, in only its second year, started red-hot winning its first two games. Much improvement has been seen in the girls team this year, which is shown in their 2 and 15 record. Although their record is not quite as impressive as the boys, with time it will be!

Varsity Basketball

The Team: (L to R) Toshi Nishida, Yukio Nishida, Ken Parker, Marc Meyer, Danny Schult, Paul Parker, James Peltz, Masao Nishida, Andrew Chien, Ned Watts, and the coach, Tom Ball.



This year's team did very well. After barely losing two close ones at Oakland in the Thanksgiving Tourney, they shattered a 96-game losing streak by defeating Tri-valley, 46-40. Only 3 days later, they won again, this time coming from behind to top ISD, 68-66. Uni finished out the season with a much-improved 5-15 record.

Despite an unsuccessful road trip, the spirits of the players did not drop. The Illineks returned to the friendly confines of Kenney Gym – their home court. In their first game back, the Illineks posted an inspiring victory over conference rival Bellflower, 70-59. Thus, they continued their unbeaten string at home.

The people who made it possible for students to get lunchtime drinks (only milk and orange drinks) were, Angie Friedman, Winnie Lin, Carolyn Rundquist, Beverly Joy, Agnes Haken, Nancy Brown, and Ann Liu.

Lounge

Chess

Agora Week

The organizers of this year's Agora Week which included two trips, were Peter Appel, Andrew Chien, Mr. Rist, Steve Rader, Cammie Edwards, and Ann Liu. (Not pictured: Kris Gunsalus and Toshi Nishida)

Madrigals

Chorus

Counselors

Peer Counselors were Patricia Gatto, Joe Kim, Amy Swarr, Beverly Joy, Cassie Hoffman, Amy Molnar, Mike Bailey, Davy Temperley, Ned Watts, and Leslie Bettridge

N.H.S.

C.S.O.

Chuck Sentman, David Dannels, and Ted Purves were the head people of Conflict Simulation Organization. This is CSO's second year in existence here at Uni.

Events

Orientation Picnic

Everybody had a good time at the picnic this year. Among the traditional refreshments were hot dogs and pop. There were also some good games of football, softball, and volleyball.

Howdy Hop

This was, as it always is, Uni's first dance of the year, and it turned out pretty well. It was organized by Peter Krause, and the sponsor was Rebecca Nelson.

Thanksgiving Dance

Halloween Dance

The Halloween Dance was organized by Peter Krause. The Sponsor was Steve Young. There was a pretty good turnout of people in bizarre outfits, and everyone had a really good time.

Fall Play

This years fall play was very enjoyable especially for Leslie. It was entitled "The Real Inspector Hound," and was directed by Mrs. Perrin and Julie Janusz.

Annual Surprise Christmas Party

The party this year was quite fun. There was caroling, short skits, assorted other things, and food.

Christmas Dance

The originally scheduled band for this dance cancelled on us at the last minute. Fortunately, we were able to get GOLIATH to play, and they turned out to be a really great band. So great, in fact, that almost EVERYONE was dancing, (a Uni first).

Big Show

The Big Show theme this year was Livavision. It was directed by JB and Eric Loeb, with help from Peter Krause. Among the featured items were magic, Mr. Subbie, and musical entertainment.

Valentine's Dance

The dance was DJ'd by Shag Makino, Chris Decardy and Ian Scharf, and everyone seemed to have a good time. One of the more unusual things at this dance was the laser display.

CLASS HISTORY

Sub-Freshmen Year

We arrive at Uni: Lowly subs compared to the seniors at that time (of course we were far superior to subs that came during the succeeding years). We have to get used to new students, and new teachers. Dr. Purves has the pleasure of teaching us sentence combining and other topics associated with English. Where is the mysterious Keith Griffith? Only the Shadow knows . . . We go through math and computer science with Dr. Davis, Paul Mailman and Peter Kimble as our instructors. Dr. Davis teaches us how to make boxes that hold water, how to play "Go", and how to become movie stars. Peter-Paul (no Mary) try to teach us how to program in BASIC and FORTRAN but instead we would rather write notes on PLATO. We are all supposed to attend language lab as part of our language classes, (but who went?). In science, Dr. Triplett teaches us the way to remember the name, Multimicronucleatum (who ate 'em?). He also shows us how to yell "sizzle-sizzle". Sonja drinks her 3 Mountain Dews daily before 1st period. Eddie (and his friend Doggie Evans) have laughing attacks in class. Milos (Meesh) John and Ricky have eraser fights. Jose' leaves. Certain people throw Jello at the ceiling in room 206 and discover that it sticks (forever). Mrs. Zonn's keys mysteriously disappear. Thus indepth our subbie year.

Freshmen Year

We come back to Uni and find that we've lost some people and gained others. Lea, Sonja, and Gloria leave. Danny, Amy, Charles, Steve, Betsy, Laurie, and Mark join us. This year we must endure classes like the ever-popular Problem Solving course. The result is a mass skip on one day. Mrs. Hoag straightens our class up and keeps us in line. When her teaching assistant, Ms. Kalinak, takes over for two weeks, we all go wild (when the cat's away . . .). Those of us in Dr. Davis' math class learn how to act reasonably businesslike. The rest of us have a new face, Dr. McKnight, to teach us math and how to insult people. In Social Studies, we have Mike Woods (the tall one) and his classes lead to fights . . . uh, interesting discussions. Our attendance in language lab is steadily declining. In Science, Mr. Dirks' bad jokes keep us awake and Mrs. Morris gives us a sex ed. class. Mr. Ball and his accent join the PE staff. Our favorite pasttimes become chess, football, cards, 4-square, and gossiping. Ricky learns to say aluminum. Paul, John, Milos, David and Ricky start the Uni High Apathy Club, but they don't care. John's little red books gets passed around. "Hotsie" gets upset, because somebody wrote something on her locker. Lorene has her head in the clouds. Diane and Susan send Eddie love notes. Betsy is ready in bed in Chicago. Andrew loses the room key (but he denies it). We are all happy when summertime rolls around. Thus endeth freshman year.

Sophomore Year

Sophomore year: Our dwindling class receives six new additions, Margot, Cammie, Karen, Becky, Pat and Martin. We return to Uni and find to our dismay that we have been stuck on the second floor for the third year in a row. "Hotsie" and Alicia maintain their notorious gang and the David Norman fan club receives some new additions. Mr. Parkers' Social Studies class has a legs contest and Eugene wins! We won a Junior Varsity basketball game 38-31. But, we continued the Varsity losing streak. Amy ~~learn~~s how to drive (kind of). Our classes are practically segregated, male on one side, females on the other, why? Who knows? We get last years' yearbooks. Uni wins conference in Cross Country. Danny finally stops singing, whew! Mrs. Meins brings her kids to class and they learn more than we do. Miss Hostetter brings her Aunt Harriet to visit Uni. We learn about sodium in chemistry and several of us test it in the toilets and water fountains. After three years of Dr. Davis our class is rather confused.

Junior Year

We learn the PSAT, ACT, and SAT all mean one thing—boredom. Saint Clayton arrives with stories of ingles, M-16's, and Vietnam. Mark, Lorene, Pat, Martin and Meesh all leave. In return we receive Eric Loeb-mmmm . . . Kris returns. Ricky comes back but is demoted because he was too busy not studying in California. Suzanne and Alicia leave, destroying their infamous gossip gang. The whole class sighs with relief. Uni wins conference in Cross Country, again! Amy really learns how to drive. John loses his glasses and doesn't find them. Diane does likewise. Baking powder and corn starch fill the air as seniors and juniors do battle. Girls basketball comes to Uni and we gain another losing streak. Danny loses his fuzzbrains. After four years of Dr. Davis, our class is confused too. Mr. Dannels put ice in his coffee, dry ice! Eugene and Paul begin to play gin. Eric Yang, Diane, Lisa and Andrew play spades . . . spades . . . and more spades.

Senior Year

Apathy reigns. We lose Steve, Cindy, Meesh, and Bill. We gain Hayit and Eli via the Isreale Connection. Paul discovers girls. Uni rediscovers chess. SAT, ACT, AP, SCAT, and CLEP strike fear into the hearts of even the bravest seniors. John takes two classes and doesn't attend either. Mrs. X doesn't realize that seniors are supposed to work. Note cards, debates, page numbers, and essays. Coslows becomes the "senior classroom for a day". Uni wins five (count 'em, five) Varsity basketball games, two junior Varsity basketball games, and two of the girls' games. We prepare to leave, most of us to the U of I. Bullets' Laker's, and Celtics' fan have intense disagreement. Half the class goes to Y and G, and comes back, eventually. The lounge gets a new juke box and some new records, too. We're the first of the second generation of subbies. Rising from the ashes of the Form I program, we are the last of the small classes at Uni. We entered Uni young and innocent (well, young at least) and now we emerge ready (maybe) to enter the harsh, corrupt boring world.

Class Will

I, Lisa Badger, leave my mellowness to Masao Nishida.

I, Andrew Chien, leave nothing to Steve Berkson, And, for once, he may be getting exactly what he deserves.

I, Margot Chow, leave my class to Jeanne Sentman.

I, Eugene Kao, leave the wit and humor of Joe Shmoe to Steve Rader.

I, Karen Krummel, would like to leave my cello to James Peltz, but I've decided to keep it.

I, Eric Loeb, leave my belly button to Julie Stenzel, and my body hair to the freshmen girls.

I, Amy Molnar, leave my taste in music and love for REO Speedwagon to Shag Makino and Chris DeCardy, and my empty gas tank and driving skills to my sister, Holly.

I, Toshi Nishida, leave my fantastic chess-playing ability and sanity to Joshua Paley.

I, Paul Parker, leave my presidency of the Apathy Club to James "Stretch" Peltz.

I, Danny Schult, leave my face fuzz to Theo Merritt.

I, Ducky Sherwood, leave my locker stickers to JB.

I, David Temperly, leave.

I, Diane Yang, leave my great athletic abilities and Mickey Mouse ears to Kate and Mary Choldin.

1980 Closing

We deeply regret the fact that this yearbook is so late. Problems with the staff, and assorted other problems led to us eventually missing most of our deadlines, and the result was that this yearbook did not come out at the scheduled time. But, what's done is done, and we should not brood over things we cannot change.

Aside from that, we feel that this yearbook turned out rather well. The purpose of a school yearbook is to capture the events of the year, and organize them in a fashion which in the future enables everyone to recall all those long-forgotten events. We feel that is what we have produced here. We hope you think it is one of the better yearbooks to come out of Uni, too. We look forward to an even better one next year. Thanks for your patience.

Special Thanks to Debbie Sapp, who was our sponsor this year, and put in a lot of time towards the yearbook.
